

Bylaws of United Academics - AAUP/AFT Local 4996

ARTICLE I. Authority of the Bylaws

The Bylaws of United Academics - American Association of University Professors/American Federation of Teachers Local 4996 are subordinate to the Constitution.

ARTICLE II. Membership

Section 1. Voting rights

- A. Eligible members are Bargaining Unit Members but are not extended voting rights, or those rights afforded members in good standing through the Constitution and Bylaws.
- B. Voting rights are extended to any Bargaining Unit Member who is an active member in good standing for at least three months.

Section 2. Bargaining Unit Members

The membership of UA-AAUP/AFT is as defined in the Constitution.

Section 3. Termination of Membership

- A. An active member may resign by notifying the Secretary.
- B. An active member may be expelled for cause by a two-thirds majority vote of the Representative Assembly after opportunity for a hearing.
- C. Active membership is forfeited by non-payment of dues under conditions established by the Representative Assembly.

Section 4. Discrimination

No discrimination will ever be shown toward individual active members or eligible members because of status of union membership, race, creed, sex, sexual orientation, disability, social, political affiliation or economic status, or national origin.

ARTICLE III. Officers and Executive Board

Section 1. Election of Officers

- A. The four Organizational Vice-Presidents will be elected by the voting membership in good standing of their respective main campus or all extended sites collectively according to the procedures established by the Labor-Management Reporting and Disclosure Act.
- B. Election Cycle
  1. The offices of President, Secretary and Treasurer are elected by the at-large membership in good standing according to the procedures established by the Labor-Management Reporting and Disclosure Act, in the years 2014, 2017, and every three years thereafter.
  2. Upon ratification of these bylaws, the current Secretary/Treasurer will become the Treasurer, and an election for Secretary for the remainder of the term will be conducted according to the rules in Article III, Section 1.F for filling a vacancy.

3. Elections for Organizational Vice-Presidents will be conducted in the year following the elections for the offices of President, Secretary and Treasurer (2015, 2018, and every three years thereafter).
  4. Forty-five (45) calendar days prior to the date of the election, the Elections Committee must notify all members in good standing of UA-AAUP/AFT of the opening of nominations for office.
  5. The date of all officer elections will be the first Monday in February of the year in which the election for that office is to be held.
  6. All elections will be by secret ballot. All voting members will receive at least ten (10) days prior to the date of the election in order to cast their vote according to the procedures established by the Labor-Management Reporting and Disclosure Act.
- C. Nominations
1. To be nominated as the President, Secretary, or Treasurer, the candidate must obtain the endorsement of 10 members in good standing. All endorsements must be submitted no later than twenty (20) calendar days following the notice of the opening of nominations.
  2. To be nominated as an Organizational Vice-President, the potential candidate may self-nominate or be nominated by a member in good standing.
  3. To complete their nomination, candidates may be required to provide candidate statements, personal photographs, and other information necessary to allow the voting membership to correctly identify the candidate.
- D. The President, Secretary, Treasurer, and the Organizational Vice-Presidents are elected to three (3) year terms, and they can be elected for up to a maximum of four (4) consecutive terms.
1. Successful candidates for office shall prevail in the election by receiving the highest number of votes cast for the office.
  2. In the event the top two or more vote getters receive the same number of votes, a run-off election will be held between those tied vote getters within fifteen (15) calendar days following certification of the election. In the event of a second tie, the Representative Assembly will vote to break the tie.
- E. Successful candidates will assume office on the first day of July of the election year.
- F. With the exception of the office of the President, all vacancies on the Executive Board with less than half of the term remaining will be filled by a majority vote of the Executive Board. Vacancies of all officers with more than half the term remaining will be filled by a special election of the membership in good standing, under the procedures outlined in this section.
- G. Vacancy in the office of the President
1. In the event of a vacancy of the office of President a special election will be held within sixty (60) calendar days, and the Executive Board will appoint an interim president from among the four (4) Organizational Vice Presidents within ten (10) calendar days of the vacancy.
  2. The Secretary will direct the Elections Committee to conduct a special election to fill the office within 60 days of the vacancy.
  3. If the next regular election of the President is within 60 days of the vacancy, the interim president will serve out the remainder of the term and no special election will be held.
- H. Recalls
1. For the offices of President, Secretary and Treasurer, a petition signed by thirty percent (30%) of the membership in good standing and stating specific grounds, is sufficient to require the Elections Committee to conduct a recall election.
  2. For any other elected position, i.e., Organizational Vice President or Representative Assembly member, thirty percent (30%) of the membership in good standing of the main

- campus, or thirty percent (30%) of the membership in good standing of all extended sites, is sufficient to require the Elections Committee to conduct a recall election.
3. For offices other than Secretary, the Secretary must certify the petition within ten (10) days and direct the Elections Committee to proceed with the recall election. For the office of Secretary, the President must certify the petition within ten (10) days and direct the Elections Committee to proceed with the recall election. If an officer is recalled, the Elections Committee must hold a special election under the provisions of this section.
  4. Between a recall election being called and the certification of the recall vote, the officer in question will suspend their duties and the Representative Assembly may appoint an interim officer to carry out the duties of the position until the matter is resolved.
- I. An officer absent from six (6) Executive Board meetings during the term will be considered to have resigned from the position. The position will be filled under the procedure outlined in this section.

Section 2. Duties of Officers

- A. The President:
1. Is the presiding officer at all meetings of the general membership, the Representative Assembly and the Executive Board.
  2. Is an ex-officio member of all standing committees with the exception of the Elections Committee.
  3. Ensures committees are appointed as per the procedure laid out in the Constitution and Bylaws.

ARTICLE IV. Representative Assembly

Section 1. Election of Representative Assembly

Representative Assembly members will be elected by the members in good standing of UA-AAUP/AFT as follows:

- A. At each main campus and at all extended sites collectively for each university, one Representative will be elected for each fifty (50) Active (dues-paying) Bargaining Unit Members, or a fraction thereof, according to established procedures:
  1. In order to be a member of the Representative Assembly, a candidate must be a voting member in good standing.
  2. Each main campus (UAA, UAF, UAS) is entitled to a minimum of two (2) representatives, excluding their Organizational Vice-President.
  3. The extended sites associated with each university, defined below, are collectively entitled to a minimum of one (1) representative each, excluding their Organizational Vice-President.
    - i. The extended sites of UAS include the Sitka Campus and Ketchikan Campus.
    - ii. The extended sites of UAA include the Kenai Peninsula College, Matanuska-Susitna College, Kodiak College, and Prince William Sound College.
    - iii. The extended sites of UAF include the Bristol Bay Campus, Chukchi Campus, Community and Technical College, Interior Alaska Campus, Kuskokwim Campus, and Northwest Campus.
- B. Re-apportionment of seats in the Representative Assembly must be determined at least one month prior to the election of a new Representative Assembly.
- C. Representatives are elected for three (3) year terms in a procedure similar to and consistent with the nomination and election of Organizational Vice-Presidents in Article III Section 1 of these Bylaws. Representatives will take office on the first day of July.
- D. All members of the Representative Assembly other than the President have full voting rights at Representative Assembly meetings. The President may only vote to break a tie.
- E. With the exception of a recall, all vacancies must be filled by a majority vote of the Representative Assembly within 30 days of any vacancy occurring. It is the responsibility of the President to schedule a special meeting if one is needed, and it is the responsibility of the relevant Organizational Vice President to recruit voting members in good standing to apply to fill the vacancy.
- F. If a Representative Assembly Member expects to have to miss more than two (2) consecutive Representative Assembly meetings for a reason such as sabbatical leave or Family Medical Act leave, then they need to notify the relevant Organizational Vice President to either make arrangements for remote participation or to resign their position to create a vacancy.
- G. If a Representative Assembly Member is unable to attend a meeting for an emergent reason, they may seek approval from their Organizational Vice President for an excused absence that will not count towards their total in item I below.
- H. Representative Assembly Members who have been absent from three (3) consecutive Representative Assembly meetings or three (3) regular Representative Assembly meetings during their term will be considered to have resigned their position, creating a vacancy.

Section 2. Duties of the Representative Assembly

The Representative Assembly:

- A. Is the governing body of UA-AAUP/AFT, subject to the final authority of the membership.
- B. Selects the Elections Committee pursuant to Article V, Section 6.A below.

- F. Members of the Committee cannot run for executive office during the same year they serve on the Committee.
- G. The Elections Committee will conduct all general and special elections of UA-AAUP/AFT and promulgate guidelines and procedures consistent with the Labor-Management Reporting and Disclosure Act, the Bylaws and the Constitution. The Elections Committee will create:
  1. Procedures for electronic/online elections and voting.
  2. Procedures for elections and voting for which paper ballots are to be used.
  3. Procedures for nominations to be on the ballot for all officers and Representative Assembly members.

Section 7. Election Appeals Committee

- A. Membership
  1. The Election Appeals Committee is established as an ad hoc committee as necessary.
  2. The Election Appeals Committee is composed of four members in good standing of United Academics, one each from the University of Alaska Fairbanks, the University of Alaska Anchorage, and the University of Alaska Southeast, and the Extended Sites collectively, and one alternate.
  3. The Representative Assembly, at its October meeting in odd-numbered years, will elect the members of the Election Appeals Committee. Nominations must be made at least two weeks in advance of the October meeting. The Election Appeals Committee will select one of its members to serve as chair of the committee.
  4. No candidate for or incumbent seeking reelection to the Executive Board or member of the Election Committee is eligible to serve on the Election Appeals Committee during that election cycle.
- B. No member of the Election Appeals Committee may endorse a candidate for an Executive Board position or for the Representative Assembly membership.

C. Appeals

1. Appeals may only be considered after the final votes of the relevant election are certified by the Secretary.
  2. Any United Academics member may appeal an adverse decision of the Election Committee by submitting an appeal, in writing, to the Election Appeals Committee no later than ten business days after the date on which the final vote totals were certified and announced to the membership by the Secretary.
  3. Absent compelling circumstances, only evidence originally submitted to the Election Committee may be submitted to or be considered by the Election Appeals Committee. At the same time an appeal is submitted, the member submitting the appeal must serve a copy of the appeal by certified mail, return receipt requested, upon any candidate(s) who may be affected by the disposition of the appeal and must certify to the Election Appeals Committee that he or she has done so. Any other member involved in the Election Appeals Committee's investigation may submit an opposing statement in writing to the Election Appeals Committee within ten business days of the receipt of a copy of the appeal. At the same time, that member must serve a copy of the opposing statement by certified mail, return receipt requested, upon the appealing member and must certify to the Election Appeals Committee that he or she has done so.
- D. The Election Appeals Committee must establish a process of investigation that is consistent with the Labor-Management Reporting and Disclosure Act and should avoid any conflict of interest.
  - E. The decision of the Election Committee will be sustained unless the Election Appeals Committee determines that the Election Committee's interpretation and/or its application of the United Academics Election Process were arbitrary or capricious.
  - F. Three members of the Election Appeals Committee will constitute a quorum for the disposition of an appeal. The Election Appeals Committee's decision is final and binding.
  - G. The Election Appeals Committee will report its final decisions to the Executive Board, the Representative Assembly, the appealing member, and any other member involved in the appeal within three months of its receipt of the appeal.

Section 8: Committee on Non-Tenure Track Members
